

All people are entitled to help after a disaster.

Programs to provide resources and support after a disaster are not included in the “public charge” rule.
Apply for the disaster recovery support you need.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENDisaster>

Know your rights before a disaster happens.

There are programs available for everyone after a disaster.

Learn what programs and services you are eligible to receive.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

Don't risk your life because of your immigration status.

When a natural disaster strikes, emergency responders' job is to protect all people, regardless of immigration status. Don't be afraid to seek the help you need.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

PROTECTING IMMIGRANT
FAMILIES

Know your rights before a disaster happens.

There are programs available for everyone after a natural disaster, regardless of your immigration status. Know your rights and get the help you need.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

PROTECTING IMMIGRANT
FAMILIES

The disaster recovery system needs improvement.

Get involved with your local community based organizations to fight for a better system for all people

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

PROTECTING IMMIGRANT
FAMILIES

Using disaster recovery resources will not impact your immigration status.

Programs are available to provide resources and recovery support after a disaster, regardless of your immigration status. Get the help your family needs

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

Your family may be eligible for more disaster recovery programs.

If your family has a “qualified immigrant” or US citizen member, that person can apply for certain disaster recovery assistance, even if they are a child.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

Get the food your family needs
after a disaster.

Disaster SNAP is available to any low-income family with a qualified person in the household.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

Get the food your family needs
after a disaster.

Disaster SNAP is available regardless of immigration status.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

Short-term recovery programs are available.

FEMA provides housing and displacement assistance to families with a qualified person in the household.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

Get the assistance you need to recover after a disaster.

The FEMA Individual Assistance Program offers short-term recovery assistance to any family with a qualified person in the household.

Learn more at <https://bit.ly/ENGDisaster>

